

At College Checklist

- I have met with the Disability Support Services staff to discuss accommodations in my courses and other recommendations
- I have sent my accommodation letters to my faculty members via the Clockwork Web Portal
- I have taken the advice of Disability Support Services staff, and have followed through with their recommendations
- I have communicated with my professors about my disability, accommodations, or other areas of concern
- I have developed a strong network of friends
- I am using a daily/weekly/monthly planner to maintain organization
- I have a place to study that is suitable to my learning style and I am using this location on a consistent basis
- I have learned where the library is and how to use the services there
- I have learned where the Pirate Academic Success Center is and how to use the services there
- I have learned how to use Canvas and monitor my progress closely
- During each year at college, I am working on developing skills towards independence